What's Your Brew IQ?

The Oldest Brewery in the state of Connecticut is the Willimantic Brewing Company. It was established in 1993 in Willimantic, CT. This Connecticut brewpub is a historic USPS building that was abandoned by the Feds in 1967.

Did you know, a Brewery is also called a Beerhouse?

Cenosillicaphobia is the fear of an empty glass. You can make sure your glass is always full at any of our finest breweries in Connecticut.

A unique waterfront space with a brew house just steps from the Branford River is the Stony Creek Brewery. Sit right next to the river while sipping on a cold fresh brew.

Are you an animal lover and love beer? You can find beer and get to hang with some furry pals at The Brewery at Maple View Farm. You can even go horseback riding!

Explore Connecticut with man's best friend at Counter Weight Brewing Co. in Hamden, CT. Dog-friendly atmosphere. Ruff!

Love cats and love beer? Hang with some adorable cats roaming around while you enjoy a cold brew, at Fat Orange Cat Brew Co. in East Hampton, CT. Meow!
