Membership in the St. Marys Area Chamber of Commerce, Inc. shall be open to all individuals, businesses, and organizations in the city of St. Marys and surrounding communities. Memberships shall be classified as follows:

Active Membership: Encompasses all individuals and firms who desire membership in the St. Marys Area Chamber of Commerce and invest in said organization in their firm or business capacity per the current membership investment schedule.

Associate Membership: May be granted to any civic-minded individual who desires membership in the St. Marys Area Chamber of Commerce and invest in said organization as an Associate Member per the current membership investment schedule.

Each member or designated representative, regardless of membership classification (active or associate), is entitled to one vote in elections and meetings and may sit on the chamber board of trustees. However, only active members or designated representatives thereof are entitled to hold any offices. An individual or non-profit member that wishes to hold an office on the executive board of trustees must select either a business, non-profit professional, healthcare, financial, industrial, utilities or education category to define his/her membership.
