

CHAMBER COMMITTEES

Banquet Committee: Assists in the preparation of the Annual Membership Meeting and Banquet by organizing and decorating the banquet hall.

Education Committee: Welcomes new teachers by hosting a New Teachers' Luncheon for Farmington schools. Implemented the "It's YOUR Life" program, taught to every ninth grade class in Farmington schools by business professionals within the chamber. Host Rocinante High School career day.

Redcoat Ambassadors: Official ambassadors to the chamber, participating in ribbon cuttings, ground breakings, and make a yearly trip to the NM Legislative Opening Reception in Santa Fe.

Farmington Young Professionals (FYP): Consists of motivated, energetic, young at heart professionals, who seek enrichment by participating in professional, community, and social activities that improve the community and its members.

Health & Wellness Committee: Responsible for an annual health fair, health seminars, and focuses on the physical, mental and emotional well-being of our community.

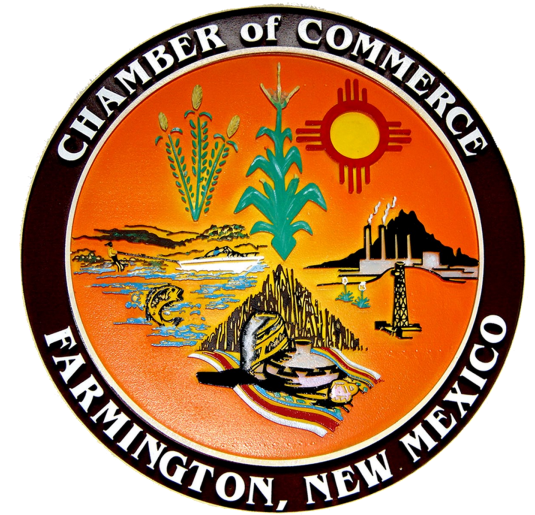

Government Affairs Committee: Brings together business and community leaders from our area to focus on the legislative initiatives. The committee discusses the impact of these issues on business in Farmington. The committee may also draft and recommend to the Board positions on issues to be adopted and advocated to government officials, membership and the public.

Promotions and Special Events: Responsible for creating and implementing new fundraisers for the chamber, most notably, Chile in October and Music on the Rocks

Finance and Operations Committee: Responsible for overseeing the financials of the Farmington Chamber of Commerce, including reviewing the monthly bank statements, invoices and the management of the chamber's investments.

Membership Committee: Promote new and ongoing membership in the Chamber. The Committee works with staff to develop strategies to increase membership. Promotes membership with door-to-door visits to businesses and potential members, chooses a Farmington Chamber Business of the Month, checks in with members on renewals, and looks for ways to increase member retention and the benefits of membership. Members of this committee are encouraged to attend as many events as possible, and to bring prospects as guests to show community members' first-hand the benefits of membership.

WHAT IS THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE?

"The Farmington Chamber of Commerce Inc. is organized for the purpose of serving and advancing the civic and business interests of the City of Farmington and the Four Corners region."

The Farmington Chamber of Commerce was incorporated January 9, 1953 and consists of a volunteer association of business people who coordinate efforts of commerce, industry and professions to maintain a healthy business in our community. The chamber helps to promote a better understanding of private enterprise. We are financed by membership investments and are open to any business deciding to invest in the betterment of the community.

WHAT DOES THE CHAMBER DO FOR THE COMMUNITY?

- ◆ Promotes commercial and industrial activities
- ◆ Works to improve the economic and civic vitality of our community
- ◆ Sponsors programs that promote community development
- ◆ Provides creative business leadership to help solve community problems
- ◆ Promotes measured and planned business development
