Why choose BOWDA?

BOWDA is a membership driven advocacy and networking group focused on supporting the needs of the building and development industry and related businesses in Canmore and the Bow Valley. We have over 253 members comprised of builders, developers, trades, consultants, supporting services and other related businesses from the Bow Valley.

For over 28 years, this broad representation of the business community provides BOWDA the ability to listen to member issues and discuss these with the various orders of government to work towards resolution and a solutions-based outcome.

We strive to be the most respected voice of the Bow Valley for the building and development community and its strategic partners; to be a catalyst for positive interaction with all communities, stakeholders and decision makers who help contribute to this great place.
