

There are so many unique ways we can support our community right now - how many BINGOs can you get?

Leave an oversized tip for the next service provider you encounter	Buy a gift card to a local business	Write glowing online reviews for 3 of your favorite local spots	Choose to Pick.Click.Give when you file for your PFD by March 31	Decline a refund, donate the price of tickets for canceled performances
Run an errand for an elderly friend	Order dinner for takeout or delivery	Buy gifts now - contact artists and makers to place holiday orders	Online flashmob - have your friends shower a local business in support all at once	Text a business owner you know to ask how to support them
Find 3 new local businesses to follow on social media	Thank a healthcare professional		Sign up for 3 mailing lists for community organizations	Leave a treat for your delivery person
Be extra kind to a grocery store employee	Call in a lunch donation to a restaurant supplying school lunches	Post about a time when a local business earned your loyalty	Find a Made in Alaska merchant and shop over the phone	Renew your memberships to local outlets
Make a donation to a non-profit organization	Send a thank you card to a business that you love	Post an insta-story showing off your best local support	Follow the Chamber of Commerce on social media	Pay for the order of the next person in the coffee line

ADVOCATE. PROMOTE. DEVELOP.