Dearest Members of the SSWR Chamber,

I wanted to send a quick note to officially say 'Hello'. I am really looking forward to starting as the Executive Director of the Chamber. We live in an incredible and unique community. The Chamber is an important organization and I am excited about working with the Board to further help support and promote our local businesses.

I am going to be spending the summer doing the transition, to do a deep dive to acquaint myself with the services and offerings of the Chamber and to also meet with community and business leaders before I start full-time in September. Some of this work has already begun.
