

Leadership Award Guidelines

- Must be current members of the Midway Chamber of Commerce.
- Contributes and promotes the economic growth, stability and improvement of the area which the Chamber serves.
- Not have won an Award in the past 3 years.
- Excel in an individual category criteria outlined below.

Award Description

Large Business of the Year

The Large Business of the Year Award is presented to a company that plays an active role in the local business community, business associations and volunteer groups. Recipients have demonstrated growth in sales, employees and/or service since inception. This award is given to a business of 20 or more employees and is a member of the Midway Chamber of Commerce.

Small Business of the Year

The Small Business of the Year Awards is to recognize a business with outstanding business practices in the Midway community. This award honors the entrepreneurship, sustainability, productivity and effort put forth in a small business. This award is given to a business of 20 employees or less and is a member of the Midway Chamber of Commerce.

Non Profit of the Year

As defined by the Midway Chamber, the Non-Profit category recognizes any Section 501(c)(3) public charity or private foundation that is tirelessly focused on serving the community and the partnerships they have built with for-profit organizations. The award will recognize a Midway Chamber of commerce member who is a section 501(c)(3) charity or private foundation member.

Volunteer of the Year

The Volunteer of the Year award recognizes a Midway Chamber of Commerce member for their commitment, dedication, leadership, and exceptional volunteer service on behalf of the Midway Chamber of Commerce.

Rookie of the Year

The Rookie of the Year award recognizes a Midway Chamber of Commerce member for their enthusiasm and can-do attitude in their first years as a Midway Chamber Member. Their excitement for the chamber is infectious and inspires other members and their commitment to the chamber.