

Alpha Omega Academy

Paul Davidhizar, Headmaster

Alpha Omega Academy provides a classical, Christ-centered education that equips Pre-K-12th grade students with the tools to be lifelong learners, partnering with parents in the training of their children to be effective Christian leaders who will impact the world for Christ. The Board of Trustees, staff, and faculty of Alpha Omega Academy are committed to God's principles in all that we do. Therefore, students will be challenged through a strong academic curriculum integrated with scripture, and based on a classical approach in an environment conducive to learning.

The vision of Alpha Omega Academy is to develop young adults who love God with all of their heart, soul, and mind, who have a commitment to serve others throughout their life-long journey. Alpha Omega endeavors to instill in them a dedication to the lifelong pursuit of truth, moral goodness, and aesthetic beauty. We endeavor to equip students with tools to discern truth from error, and to enable them to reason persuasively both in writing and speaking. We aim to encourage our young men and women to think critically, logically, and wisely. Our desire is that they possess both knowledge and the wisdom to know how to use it.

We desire that they be socially gracious and spiritually graceful, and that they enjoy and excel in physical activities. In all of these areas we seek to provide students with an environment that offers them the opportunity to develop to their fullest potential. We support a strong program of athletics and extra curricular activities because through those shared experiences, students are prepared to be humble and gracious leaders. "We are committed to a classical and Christ-centered approach to education. After extensive research and investigation we believe this is the best way to train our children to be discerning, effective Christian leaders in a culture which continues to move away from biblical values and the search for Truth, beauty, and goodness." –Paul Davidhizar, AOA Headmaster
