

Thanks to Tomorrow's Promise Montessori School for sponsoring the September Chamber Small Business Breakfast and CONGRATULATIONS for celebrating their 23rd anniversary!! Director Kaye Boehning shared, "While working on my Master's Degree in Education, I began to compare different styles of learning and found that Montessori was the only educational method based on science, the most developmentally correct, the most child-friendly and the most successful means of teaching children. It is more than just a coincidence that many people on the foremost edge of advancement and originality in our society were Montessori students, including Founders of Google Larry Page and Sergey Brin, Founder of Amazon Jeff Bezos, and Founder of Wikipedia Jimmy Wales. Chelsea Clinton, Dr. Berry Brazelton, Gabriel Marquez-Noble Prize winner, Peter Drucker-father of modern management, Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis, Prince Harry, Prince William, Prince George and Princess Charlotte all have been Montessori students. Many actors have also credited a Montessori education with their rise to fame, for example siblings Melissa and Sara Gilbert, Dakota Fanning, George Clooney and Helen Hunt just to name a few. There are approximately 20,000 Montessori schools in the world. Tomorrow's Promise is a not-for-profit 501 (c-3) charity and the only Montessori school in Huntsville. They are located at 2817 Old Houston Road. You can find out more <http://www.tomorrowspromise.info>.
