Media Description

Please briefly describe the techniques used to create the items. The organizing committee is looking for a good mix of artists and craftspeople to participate in our juried show (Additional sheet may be required).

All artisan work should be your own - no resale, kits or imports allowed. In an effort to control the infiltration of "Buy and Sell" items, two photographs of work in progress with artist present and one of your display are required for consideration. Anyone who misrepresents their work will be asked to remove objectionable items.

Festival Hours

The hours of the show are 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. As a courtesy to other exhibitors, you are not to dismantle your booth before the close of the show. This will be closely adhered to and will affect future acceptance for this show.

Exhibit Space

Spaces will be assigned once the jury process is complete. Effort will be taken to keep like crafts from being too close. Once the assignments are made, there will be no change in space assignments. Each exhibitor is responsible for their own exhibit, and will need to provide chairs, tables, easels, etc. All spaces are 12' x 12'. If you need to purchase additional space, please note on application form. You will have to purchase an entire space, no splitting.

Sales Tax

The State of Michigan requires that anyone making retail sales are required to be licensed. You need to provide your sales tax license number if asked.

Application Process

All applications must be submitted by August 1, 2017. Space is limited; therefore not all applications will receive approval. Prior participation shall not constitute a basis for renewal. The artist/craft jury board will have the sole discretionary authority to approve all applications, and these decisions shall be final and binding. Applications received after the jury deadline will be considered based upon space availability and uniqueness.

The applicant acknowledges that because of the creative nature of the products, decisions with respect to applications will be necessarily subjective and applicants specifically waive, release, and hold harmless the Mecosta County Area Chamber of Commerce, its officers, directors and members from any claims, actions or damages arising out of an application denial.

Special Notes for Concessionaires

Health Department Permit: All food vendors are required to hold food permit from the Health Department. Temporary food permit can be obtained from the Mecosta County Health Department at (231) 592-0110. Insurance Certification: A copy of certification of insurance must accompany applications. (Minimum combined single limit of $100.00) Equipment: Food vendors must provide their own equipment (tables, chairs, etc.) and be responsible for set-up, tear down and clean up of surrounding area. Provisions should be made for inclement weather such as a tent or canopy. Vendors must be prepared to operate with no access to water and electricity.
