Workshop: Get Your Business On Google

Logan Gruber of Cohlab Digital Marketing is presenting a FREE opportunity to make sure your business appears on Google Maps & in Google searches. Many businesses in and around Sauk Centre aren't properly represented in Google Maps, which means out-of-town visitors and non-current clients or customers may be getting the wrong info.

For two hours on Wednesday morning, Logan will help you claim your Google My Business listing (on Search and Maps) for free, and show you how to edit all of your information yourself. There's no cost to attend and you'll have all of your own login information. Find more information here, including the link for registration.
