U.S. agriculture official: Ball in China's court on trade

From MINNEAPOLIS STAR TRIBUNE: The Trump administration is in no mood to bow to China on trade, and U.S. farmers should not expect the massive Chinese soybean export market to open up soon, a deputy secretary at the U.S. Department of Agriculture indicated in St. Paul on Tuesday. "We're in a period right now where it is up to China whether they are going to come back to the table and negotiate in good faith," said Steve Censky, a deputy secretary of agriculture, during a visit to his native Minnesota. ... He visited northern Minnesota earlier this week and met with AgriGrowth at the Minnesota Chamber of Commerce in St. Paul on Tuesday morning. Officials from CHS Inc., Cargill, Land O'Lakes, Hormel and dozens of farm groups met with him behind closed doors.

Social with the Chamber is open to members and non-members. A "buck & a business card" gets you in the door and all dollars raised are donated to a non-profit Chamber member chosen by the host business. Members have the opportunity to make a brief announcement about their business to inform attendees on upcoming events, promotions or any additional information.

Our first event is co-sponsored by Centre PowerSports & Recreation and The Cove at GreyStone and is being held on Wednesday, June 26th from 4:30 pm—6:30 pm at The Cove. Please join us to help kick off a successful new chamber event and thank our co-hosts for being the first to the party! If your business would like to host a Social, please contact the chamber!
