ACCEPTANCE, ENTRY & INFORMATION

- All work must be representative of a Heritage craft. You will be advised at a later date of your space assignment. All work must be of fine quality and be original work of the accepted exhibitor.
- Accepted exhibitors must be in their booth during festival hours. Exhibitors must occupy the booth during both festival days and be the sole exhibitor unless a co-exhibitor has been approved in advance by the Jury Committee. Festival hours are Saturday, July 11, 10am - 7pm & Sunday, July 12, 10am - 5pm.
- Heritage exhibitors must dress in period costume and demonstrate their craft. Booths with an appearance that is characteristic of a Heritage craft are highly encouraged.

JUDGING & AWARDS

- Exhibitor judging begins at 9 a.m. on Saturday, July 11th of the Festival. Cash prizes are awarded for First and Second Place in each category: Fine Arts and Crafts. (1) First Place awarded to Heritage section. (1) Best of Show will be awarded overall.
- The Heritage Coordinator reserves the right to request the removal of any work found to be sub-standard or non-representative of the work submitted for approval. All exhibitors are checked for compliance during the regular festival hours.

SILENT AUCTION

- You are invited to contribute an item of your work to the Festival's Silent Auction. Proceeds from the Auction will help offset the cost of using the park and its facilities. Items should be representative of your quality of workmanship and include a description and retail price. If you wish to donate a piece to the auction, please indicate your intent on your application. Volunteers will collect items from your booth and present you with a receipt of your donation prior to 10 a.m. on Saturday, July 11th.
