

2018 AMBASSADOR

ALEX ALAMPI

Business Solutions Specialist
Reach Technologies

Alex was born and raised in Pitman, New Jersey a small town in South Jersey. Graduating from Gloucester County College in the early 90's he decided to work full time and go to school at night to begin racing stock cars in the South Jersey area. In 2001 he decided to move to Georgia to get away from the northern winters and enjoy all that the south has to offer. On September 11th of 2001 Alex was on an airplane on his way to a toner trade show when the terror attacks happened, something he will never forget.

Alex has been a resident of Cartersville for 11 years now and loves being a part of this growing community. He is on the membership committee of the Cartersville BNI chapter, a member of the Kennesaw Business Association and a member of the Atlanta Apartment Association. His hobbies include ice hockey, fishing bass tournaments and being a member of a dirt super late model team.

Alex is employed with Reach Technologies, an office equipment supply company that is a dealer for HP, Kyocera and FP postage equipment. He loves helping customers save time and money with all that Reach offers – office supplies, copiers, postage equipment and toner.
