

2018 AMBASSADOR

JENNIFER MOATES

*Advertising Director &
Regional Sales Manager*
The Daily Tribune News

Jennifer Moates is Advertising Director and Regional Sales Manager for The Daily Tribune News. She grew up in Marietta, Ga with a love of music, writing and the Georgia Bulldogs. So, it was only natural that she attended The University of Georgia where she received a Bachelor of Arts in Journalism. After graduation, she married and moved to Cartersville and began her career at The Daily Tribune News. Jennifer oversees the day-to-day operations of the advertising department including direction of the sales staff, layout and design of the newspaper and special sections and implementation of advertising projects. In addition, she is chief contract negotiator of local and national advertising clients. She particularly enjoys giving walking tours to school and scout groups of The Daily Tribune News, which includes the printing presses and inserting machines.

Jennifer was married 28 years prior to the death of her husband in 2015. She has 2 children, Bruce Jr, and Dorothy Moates. Bruce attends Kennesaw State University and hopes to attend Law School. Dorothy attends Georgia Highlands College working toward a degree in Education. Jennifer attends Cartersville First Baptist Church where she continues her love of music singing in the sanctuary choir.
