

2018 AMBASSADOR

MORIAH MEDINA

Head of Sales
Merry Maids

Moriah Medina has lived in Northwest Georgia since 2001. After graduating from Pepperell High School in 2003 she immediately joined her local workforce and community gaining skills in various entry level jobs such as paper carrier for the local newspaper, food service, apprenticing in piano restoration, and eventually working her way into high end retail management.

Mrs. Medina is currently Head of Sales with Merry Maids of Rome and Cartersville and coordinates community events such as the annual Chalk Your Heart Out and The Jones/Dykstra Memorial Golf Tournament in Rome.

In her spare time, Moriah helps as the PR Representative for the Rome Art Coterie, a group of artists that promote local talent and facilitates monthly seminars on different artists and their techniques. She is also the Artists Coordinator for the Rome Shakespeare Festival. She enjoys spending time with friends playing music in their band, Boxwine and the Brewnettes, along with her husband, Hai Medina, and their littlest band mate, daughter Penelope.
