

2018 AMBASSADOR

ZANETT ELLINGTON

Community Relations Coordinator
Tranquility House
Domestic Violence Center

Zanett is the Community Relations Coordinator with Tranquility House Domestic Violence Center. In her role, she works to provide awareness of the plight of domestic violence to the community and other partners and coordinates the organization's annual Golf Tournament and other fundraising and community events. She started as a volunteer with Tranquility House while working as a REALTOR® with Homestead Properties, LLC, after working more than over 20 years in Restaurant Management.

Born in Panama City, FL, Zanett has lived in various places due to being in a military family. Her family now considers Tacoma, WA home. "This opportunity taught me to be very benevolent and to serve others at an early age," Zanett said. "I have always had a passion to help others."

She enjoys spending time travelling with her husband, Larry, especially to destinations with water, and watching television.

In addition to serving as a Chamber Ambassador, Zanett currently serves on the Bartow Business Women Committee, is a member of the Bartow County MLK Committee, and is a member of Sown Seed Missionary Baptist Church. She and her husband live in the Calhoun area.
