From Job & Family Services: Pandemic Unemployment Assistance Data Issue Discovered, Corrected — Deloitte Consulting is currently under contract with the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services (ODJFS) to develop the system to administer the Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (PUA) program. Over the weekend, Deloitte notified ODJFS that about two dozen individuals inadvertently had the capability to view other PUA claimants' correspondence. Once the unauthorized access was identified, Deloitte fixed the issue within one hour. ODJFS contacted the individuals who had accidental access to the system data. Although there is no evidence of any widespread data compromise, Deloitte is offering credit monitoring to all PUA claimants for 12 months. ODJFS holds the confidentiality of claimant data in the highest regard and agreed with the immediate steps Deloitte took to prevent any unauthorized PUA access in the future.

From United Way: Please share — The Foodbank's Mobile Farmers Markets are set to resume in June, beginning in Eaton on Monday, June 1, 10 a.m.-noon at the Preble County Fairgrounds. Social distancing guidelines will be followed. Please wear a mask if one is available. If you are ill please do not come, send a friend or neighbor in your place with a signed note stating they may pick up on your behalf. There will be directional volunteers and staff on site to help individuals stay 6 feet apart, please follow these guidelines.
