From Alexa Little, Preble County United Way Director: Planning for Preble County Christmas for Kids 2020 has begun. To ensure the safety of our donors, families served and committee members; we have made significant changes to the registration and distribution process. We have moved up the window for families to apply for assistance to Oct. 12-23 and we need your help in getting the word out!

If you are on social media, please follow our page: Preble County Christmas for Kids and share our posts. You can find a flier to share with embedded link to the registration application and details of how to register HERE. Please display it in your workplace, breakroom, church bulletins, etc. If you are interested in adopting a child or family, please reach out. Profile Tags (a tag indicates information about a child that has registered for gifts such as age, gender, likes/interests) will be available the first week of November. Email AlexaJ@Dayton-Unitedway.org for additional information.

Town hall meetings set for Preble County Commissioner & 43rd House District of Ohio election races: The Preble County Farm Bureau will host separate town hall meetings for candidates running for Preble County Commissioner & Representative of House District 43. The public is welcome to attend. Both events will be held at the Youth Center, 306

Seven Mile Dr. Eaton.

On Monday, Oct. 12, at 7 p.m. (doors will open at 6:30 p.m.) county commissioner candidates Mary Bullen, Adam Craft and Rachael Vonderhaar will all be present. Ty Higgins, Director of Media Relations from the Ohio Farm Bureau will be our impartial moderator from the evening. Then, on Thursday, Oct. 15, Preble & Montgomery County Farm Bureaus are honored to host D-Amy Cox and R-Rodney Creech at 7 p.m. Doors open at 6:30 p.m. The impartial moderator will be Matt Altman of Darke County.

Citizen participation in both meetings is encouraged by submitting questions via email before the events to preble@ofbf.org. The Register-Herald will be assisting by recording the town hall meetings which will be posted to the County Farm Bureau website. Come join us for an evening of interesting debate on important issues to our district. The format for the event can be requested by calling 937-456-5400 or emailing preble@ofbf.org. Social distancing will be maintained with a limited number of live participants.
