

Camille R. Murphy, CPA, CGMA

Managing Partner | Murphy & Company, LLC

Camille Murphy is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA), Chartered Global Management Accountant (CGMA), and managing partner at the Branford based accounting firm of Murphy & Company, LLC. She is the Past-President of the CT Society of CPA's (CTCPA).

The CT Society of CPA's is a 6,000+ member organization serving the accounting profession in CT. She is also a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA). The AICPA serves 386,000 members in 128 countries around the world.

She works with a wide variety of businesses both in and outside our state on accounting, tax, and strategic planning issues to help them build stronger, more profitable companies for owners, their families, and other stakeholders.

Prior to her current practice, Camille began her career at what was then known as one of the "Big 8" accounting firms, Deloitte, Haskins & Sells.

Camille has been, and continues to be, a passionate contributor and volunteer to numerous charitable and civic organizations and schools. Camille is a well-recognized advocate for financial literacy and education and served on the State of CT Treasurer's Office Financial Literacy Coalition, is chairperson of the CTCPA Financial Literacy Task Force, and is the Chairperson for the CTCPA initiative known as "Save Our State" - a group whose sole mission is to educate CT residents about the true financial condition of our state. She presently serves on the Boards of several non-profit and for profit organizations.

Camille holds a BS in Accounting from Quinnipiac University, and is presently working on her Masters in Accounting.

Topics: Fiscal condition of the State of Connecticut, Understanding the financial statements of the State.

Audience: Business owners in CT.

Contact:

Phone: (203) 208-0572