

Larry Bingaman, South Central Regional Water Authority

Larry Bingaman is the president and CEO of the South Central Connecticut Regional Water Authority (RWA). He leads with a keen focus on sustainable and conscious business practices that maintain and grow the region's rich natural resources to create new opportunities. Serving 430,000 consumers in New Haven and 19 surrounding communities, RWA has revenues of approximately $103 million, 260 employees and works to foster a deep connection with its various stakeholders.

As a leader, Larry is propelled by the success of those around him. He understands the value of elevating the strengths of all stakeholders and has experience serving on public, private, non-profit and community boards. His governance experience includes: audit; pension and compensation; environment, health, safety, and risk; strategic planning; governance; and government affairs committees.

His initial utility experience was gained during his 20-year career with Aquarion Water Company, one of the seven largest investor-owned water companies in the U.S., serving 700,000 people in 33 Connecticut, Massachusetts and New Hampshire communities.

Larry is deeply involved in the New Haven community. He is the current chairman for the Greater New Haven Chamber of Commerce Board and a former director of Griffin Hospital Services Corporation, its subsidiaries and committees. Griffin is a $400M, 160-bed regional hospital and a leader in health care. He chaired the Government Relations Committee, served as a member of the Strategic Affairs, Governance and Nominating Committees, and was a two-time chair of the hospital's annual gala, which resulted in record-setting fundraising.

Topics: How to integrate Conscious Capitalism into your business, How to foster conscious leadership, How to develop a conscious culture, Water as a critical foundation of economic development

Audience: Greater New Haven business community & Non-profit leaders

Contact: 203-401-6720

www.facebook.com/scctrwa

www.twitter.com/SC_CT_RWA

www.linkedin.com/company/regional-water-authority

LinkedIn: Larry Bingaman