

Bob Dickson

Bob Dickson is owner and president of Dale Carnegie Training of Western Connecticut, leading a franchise of one of the world's oldest and most successful training companies. With P&L responsibilities of approximately $600,000, Bob has been the driving force of franchise growth and accomplishment – recognized in 2005 with both the prestigious President's Club Award and the Rookie of the Year Award. In 2006 the franchise placed second globally in percent sales growth, earning his team the Chairman's Award. 2013 saw the Western CT franchise earn the coveted Silver Cup award for growth of sales. In addition to his executive responsibilities, Bob is a certified trainer the Dale Carnegie Sales Advantage Course, the High Impact Presentation Program and the Leadership Training for Managers Course. He joined the company in July of 2004.

Topics: Presentations that WOW, Building your Professional Business Network, Enthusiasm: The Little Known Secret to Success, CALLS to Action: Building a Better Team!

Audience: Professional and Personal Development, Non-vocational learning

Contact:

Phone: (203) 783-9888