Accounting & Tax 101: Answers to Most Commonly Asked Small Business Questions

How do I pay myself - dividends or salary? It's time for a new car – should I lease or buy? Should I put the vehicle in my company name? My car is wrapped so it's 100% deductible, right?! My neighbor says my dog is security for my business and I should claim his food and vet bills.

Tax rules change often but legitimate and reasonable business expenses should remain relatively constant. Sharon specializes in small business, accounting and tax. She is passionate about what she does and understands many small businesses don't know the answers to these commonly asked questions. She explains in a manner that is understandable to all, no intimidation or accounting and tax lingo. This informative session will answer small business owners every day questions about what you CAN write off and what CRA is looking at.
