

Division Structure

The Chamber is organized into 11 divisions that support our strategic direction. The image below illustrates the importance that our Communications Division has in our overall operations. All of our major initiatives and announcements are routed through this division to ensure consistent messaging in terms of both content and tone.

