Leadership Pearland, Texas is a national leadership program sponsored by the Pearland Chamber of Commerce. It is designed to identify and bring together men and women of the area who seek the opportunity to expand their involvement in community affairs and are willing to assume leadership positions. It is a series of eleven sessions covering such areas as personal skills, government, economic development, social needs, and other key segments of our community. Additionally, there are mandatory events including the Community Leader's Reception, a Two-Day Retreat, an overnight stay in Austin, Texas, and, an optional two night stay in Washington DC.

Purpose:

To enhance and motivate emerging leaders to develop their potential for civic leadership and commitment to the community of Pearland. To make their involvement in community affairs more effective and become acquainted with and more involved in the Chamber of Commerce and its activities.

Objectives:

1. To develop and form relationships benefiting the participants professional and volunteer careers;
2. To stimulate a common understanding of the forces and trends affecting the development of the community and enhance the ability of these groups to work together for the advancement of Pearland;
3. To inform the participants about the history of Pearland; its government, economy, social issues, needs, opportunities and existing processes to deal with current and future issues; and
4. To promote active involvement by the participants in a wide range of civic and community affairs.

Tuition:

The cost of the program is $1,200 and is payable by the individual, the employer or a sponsoring organization. Tuition covers most meals, overnight accommodations, and supplemental transportation and course materials. Full payment for the program must be remitted to the Pearland Chamber of Commerce upon acceptance to the course.

Commitment:

This type of program requires a serious time commitment from the participants. If tuition is paid by an employer and the applicant leaves their employment, no refunds will be given. Tuition remains vested in the original applicant. Attendance for the community leader's reception, retreat, overnight stay in Austin are mandatory. The trip to Washington DC is optional.

Attendance:

The Leadership Pearland, Texas program consists of mandatory attendance to the initial reception, a two day retreat, overnight trip to our state capital and six day-long sessions, once each month beginning in September and ending in June. An optional two night, three day trip to our nation's capitol is available for an additional fee. Participants are expected to attend all sessions as well as monthly Chamber and Community Events. Participants will be removed from the program if more than 12 cumulative hours of the program are missed.

Eligible Candidates:

Prime candidates for this program are those individuals who are emerging as leaders within their chosen careers and/or various community organizations and agencies, or current leaders wishing to improve their knowledge and leadership skills. They will represent every sector of the community and will be individuals with enthusiasm and dedication.

Membership:

The Leadership Pearland Class will receive a one year complimentary membership for the Pearland Chamber of Commerce

You are encouraged to review this information and complete the application for consideration to participate in this very important program, invite a colleague to apply or require an employee to participate.

ELIGIBILITY AND ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS

Please read the following eligibility and attendance requirements prior to completing the application:

To be eligible, an applicant must fulfill one of the following categories:

CATEGORY I. Live in Pearland, Texas.

CATEGORY II. Work in Pearland, Texas.

If more than 12 applications are received, the following requirements shall apply: Up to thirty percent (30%) may be chosen from Category II, but seventy percent (70%) of the class must be chosen from Category I. Therefore, the make-up of the class will be no less than 70% applicants from Category I or more than 30% from Category II.

Priority will be given to applicants who have demonstrated leadership potential or ability in one or more organizations or activities related to the betterment of Pearland, Texas. A husband and wife cannot both be participants in the same class. Prior non-acceptance of an applicant does not affect future consideration for selection.

No candidate for office may be a participant in the class. Should a participant chose to run for office after being selected for the program that participant will be allow to complete the program but shall be asked not to discuss their candidacy.

No exclusion shall be made on the basis of race, age, sex, religious preference, or physical disability.

These eligibility requirements shall be published with the application forms. THESE REQUIREMENTS MAY BE WAIVED IF DOING SO DOES NOT PENALIZE ANY APPLICANT.

PARTICIPANT ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS:

An applicant to this program should seriously consider the time commitment involved! It is expected that a participant shall attend every meeting in its entirety. However, conflicts arise, thus the allowance of missing some meeting time is tolerated.

ABSENTEEISM:

Missing over twelve hours is grounds for dismissal from the current class. The reception, two-day retreat, the overnight trip to Austin are mandatory. These events are integral parts of the Leadership Pearland, Texas program. A participant absent from any one of these stated events will be removed from the program, with no refund of tuition.

PROMPTNESS:

Times given are prompt. Make plans to arrive at the designated departure location at least five minutes before scheduled to leave. Out of consideration for our guest speakers, promptness is emphasized. If you miss 15 minutes of any hour that hour will be deducted from your allowed hours. The following are examples: 15 minutes late equal one hour missed, 16 minutes late equal two hours missed, 31 minutes late equal three hours missed and so forth. Time will be deducted up to the total amount of hours given to that particular day. Any person taking care of business other than Leadership Pearland business, which includes taking phone calls, for more than 15 minutes shall equal one hour missed.

NOTIFICATION:

If a participant misses any time they shall be notified in writing of the hours deducted and the remaining hours noted. The Leadership Pearland, Texas Chairman shall be responsible for keeping complete records as to how many hours a participant has missed and shall make a participant's record of attendance available for the participant upon request at any reasonable time and place. If more than 12 hours of class are missed the student will not be allowed to continue with the program or graduate.

CONTINUITY:

Although all alumni are welcome to participate in any class, the members of the current graduating class are responsible for facilitating and leading one class the following year.

CONTRIBUTION TO YOUR COMMUNITY:

Each Leadership class is required to complete a group service project that benefits the community. The type and scope of the project is determined by the talents, resources and creativity of the class participants. The project must involve all of the class members and is designed to leave a lasting impact on the community.

Cost: $1,200 (Cost does not include the Washington DC trip. All other session expenses are included in the cost.)
