

ALASKA CHAMBER

2017 FALL FORUM

A Tale of Two Economies: Then and Now

Harrigan Centennial Hall • Sitka, Alaska • October 10-12, 2017

October 10-12, 2017

SPONSORSHIP RANGE: $500 – $15,000

EVENT PROFILE

The Alaska Chamber's 2017 Fall Forum will be held in Sitka, Alaska on October 10-12. During the two days the Chamber will highlight issues of statewide importance, set its policy agenda and celebrate the accomplishments of a leading business, a local Alaska chamber of commerce and an outstanding individual.

Utterly worthless. That's how a Missouri congressman described Alaska when the United States bought it from Russia. Today, after 150 years as a U.S. possession and 58 years as a state, Alaska has produced resources worth more than $1 trillion dollars. Our theme, A Tale of Two Economies: Then and Now, will look at how Alaska's economy has evolved since the purchase from Russia. This year's Fall Forum, will fittingly be in Sitka where the sale of Alaska to the U.S. occurred on March 30, 1867.

Raise your company's profile and brand in front of other influential business leaders, and show your support of your business community by sponsoring the Fall Forum. Our sponsorship packages are built to fit a wide variety of budgets and marketing goals. Select from the following sponsorship levels and connect it to the future success of Alaska!

WHY SPONSOR THE FALL FORUM?

- Position your business as a leader in Alaska's business community
- Maximize exposure of your product or service in front of hundreds of motivated business people
- Develop and strengthen relationships with other prominent members of the business community

Specific sponsorship levels and benefits are listed on the following Sponsorship Agreement.
