Chamber Endorses Economic Vitality Advocates

The San Rafael Chamber of Commerce today announced its endorsements for the 2012 Assembly and County Supervisor races. After individual interviews with several of the candidates who are vying for the open council seats, the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce has endorsed the following: Marc Levine for Assembly, David Weinshoff for District 2 Marin County Supervisor and Steve Kinsey for District 4 Marin County Supervisor .

“ The San Rafael Chamber is most interested in ensuring that our future local elected officials are experienced community members who are committed to responsible business growth and have shown a commitment to prioritize economic vitality,” explained Rick Wells, President and CEO. “The Chamber has endorsed these three candidates because they are committed to the retention and expansion of businesses in San Rafael and its surrounding area. They will continue to prioritize economic activity as a solution to our financial issues. They have demonstrated a clear understanding of the impacts of today's local issues and their impact on the business community.”

Wells continued, "Our community as a whole relies on the business community for our quality of life in Marin and these candidates have made it clear that they understand the critical relationship between the two."

The San Rafael Chamber has been the voice of business for over 90 years and represents nearly 600 small and large businesses with over 12,000 employees. The San Rafael Chamber of Commerce is a member- based business advocacy organization providing a strong voice in support of the economic vitality of our community. For more information visit
