

Wells Fargo

Wells Fargo is a diversified, community-based financial services company with a long history of serving customers' financial needs. Wells Fargo has been part of the North Bay since the mid-1800s, opening its first San Rafael express office in 1860.

With approximately 851 team members, providing banking, investment and mortgage products and services, as well as consumer and commercial finance through 47 branches, 141 ATMs and online banking services in the North Bay.

Wells Fargo is committed to helping local small businesses succeed financially and is proud to be the leading small business lender in California. In an effort to support the credit process for small businesses, the company launched, the Wells Fargo Works for Small Business® Business Credit Center, a new holistic online resource that provides tools to help small business.

Wells Fargo team members take pride in being active in our communities to help solve the social, economic, and environmental issues facing our customers and communities. In 2019, the North Bay Business Journal selected Wells Fargo as one of the top companies to exemplify to outstanding example of corporate giving and community involvement in the North Bay.

Last year, Wells Fargo invested more than $1.4 million in grants to 122 nonprofits in the North Bay to support small businesses, affordable housing community development, workforce advancement and education. North Bay team members also volunteered 3,106 hours to build homes, help underserved children learn how to read, serve on the boards of local nonprofits, and many other activities.
