

San Rafael Pacifics

In November of 2018 the San Rafael Pacifics were purchased by Gabriel Suarez. A former professional baseball player who played 11 years with different organizations including the Montreal Expos, Houston Astros, LA Dodgers, and Philadelphia Phillies. Gabriel also represented Team Spain in the 2013 World Baseball Classic.

After his playing career, Suarez owned and operated the Joplin Blasters and then Cleburne Railroaders of the American Association before selling the franchises.

Currently, Gabriel owns a Real Estate business in Arizona and also was one of the co-founders of the Elite Tour, a minor league professional golf tour based out of Phoenix, Arizona.

For more information, please visit www.pacificsbaseball.com.