

Neighborhood Community Meetings

BE A PART OF THE PUBLIC SAFETY CONVERSATION

Identify, Prioritize Crime Issues in Neighborhoods & Solution Strategies

Chief of Police Diana Bishop invites community participation in these specially designed meetings to allow neighborhoods and police to discuss specific neighborhood issues and to engage in the problem-solving process. Residents and businesses are encouraged to attend the meeting in their district as outlined below. Each session will be facilitated by Chief Bishop, community officials and police department staff. Spanish speaking translation will be available.

Together we will outline public safety priorities and solution strategies.

