

San Rafael Chamber

2019 Women of Industry Award Nomination Form

On Friday, November 15, 2019, the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce will hold its 7th Annual Women of Industry Luncheon & Marketplace at Embassy Suites San Rafael.

This award recognizes a woman who has made a significant impact in our community and who is a San Rafael Chamber member. Nominees are owners or leaders in business, demonstrate professional excellence, and have a genuine commitment to pushing boundaries, motivating others, building relationships with colleagues and employees, and mentoring women and girls.

NOTE to Nominators: Please consider notifying the nominee of this nomination. Often the nominee will have more detailed and specific items and/or stories to share. Since this is a competitive process, we want your nomination to be its very best and want the nominee who is chosen to be available to attend the event.

Please provide the following information with as much detail as possible:

3. Chamber leadership: (Is she a San Rafael Leadership Institute graduate or supporter, board or committee member? Number of years involved, etc.)

4. Demonstrated professional excellence: (Number of years (approx.) in business owner/organization, number of employees/contractors, professional partners and collaborators)

5. Community impact: social, economic, environmental: (financial success – sustained business growth and healthy finances, demonstrated skill and accomplishments, philanthropic impact; professional milestones, volunteer boards and commissions, commitment to mentoring)

6. Optional anecdote: (the greatest challenge faced by this woman in her career and how she met that challenge, what was the impact)

7. Additional letter(s) of support:

Applications are due Friday, June 28, 2019
