

San Rafael Chamber

Women of Industry Luncheon

Award Nominations Criteria 2018

This award recognizes San Rafael Chamber members that are women professionals in Marin who have excelled in their field and made a significant contribution to the Marin business community. Women of Industry Award Recipients are owners or leaders of a business, the driving force behind success through pioneering approach, business acumen, dynamism, innovation, audacity and tenacity.

They have a genuine commitment to mentoring, pushing boundaries, ability to motivate others, relationship building with colleagues/employees, especially other women.

Criteria

The following criteria will be used to determine the best candidate.

- Years in Business
- If a business owner
 - Number of Employees / Independent Contractors
 - Business Growth; Annual Sales, Projected Sales
 - Professional Business Organization partners
- If a business professional / non-profit professional
 - List of partners and collaborators
 - Economic impact of candidate's work
 - Professional Business Organization partners
- Financial Success – sustained business growth and healthy finances
- Professional Accomplishments or “Rags-to-Riches” Story
- Awards & Milestones
- Community or Philanthropic Impact; Boards, Commissions, Volunteer Commitments
- San Rafael Leadership Institute Graduate or Supporter

Nomination Application

- How has this woman demonstrated outstanding skill, commitment and accomplishment in her chosen field?
- What is the greatest challenge faced by this woman in her career and how did she meet that challenge?
- How has this woman dedicated herself to the betterment of women in her profession?

Attachments

Application may include

- Additional Letters of Support

Applications must be submitted to the Chamber by June 26, 2018