

YOU'VE JOINED THE CHAMBER!

NOW WHAT?

UTILIZE YOUR MEMBER INFORMATION CENTER

As a member investor, you receive access to the Member Information Center, which allows you to update your directory listing, post jobs, post events, post press releases, contact fellow Chamber members, pay invoices, and much more!

ATTEND CHAMBER ORIENTATION

Chamber Orientation is a perfect opportunity to learn more about programs and services included with your Chamber membership. Orientation is for new members, current members, and prospective members looking to get familiar or reacquainted with Chamber features and benefits from advocacy to advertising, which will help your business grow and succeed.

STAY INFORMED WITH ENEWS

The Chamber's weekly electronic newsletter (eNews) helps you stay informed on current issues that impact your business, as well as listing all of the monthly and recurring events happening at the Chamber.

SPEAK WITH YOUR CHAMBER AMBASSADOR

The Ambassadors Club is a group of volunteer members, who want to help you navigate your experience with the Chamber. As a new member investor, you are assigned a dedicated Chamber Ambassador to answer questions, make introductions, and to help you succeed.

CHECK OUT THE CHAMBER PUBLICATIONS

The Chamber wants you to skip the extensive research of contact information and other important resources, which includes yearly legislative agenda, public officials guide, relocation guide, and much more!

ENROLL WITH BUSINESS HEALTH TRUST (BHT)

As a member investor, you can be part of an exclusive arrangement with selected insurance carriers with negotiated preferred rates for small businesses. These rates reduce the cost of employee benefit plans without compromising the level of coverage.

MAKE AN APPOINTMENT WITH YOUR BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT REP

As a member investor, you have a dedicated business development specialist who wants your business to succeed. Your representative can make recommendations on how to increase your visibility and expand your reach from advertising and sponsorship opportunities, to engaging with committees, boards and more!.
