Booth sizing will be monitored during the event. If occupying more space than approved, additional fees may be assessed. Higher booth fees will be charged after July 31. No refunds, for any reason, will be given after July 15.

Fine Art/Craft Booth Criteria

Chautauqua is a juried show. The jury has established the following criteria: Quality original, handcrafted and/or creatively and artistically enhanced items. Items for sale must be handcrafted or enhanced creatively or artistically by the exhibitor. Enhancements to items must contribute substantially to the value of the item and represent a significant level of craftsmanship. The jury reserves the right to determine where this line is drawn. Color photos showing detail of merchandise representative of the work to be exhibited and sold must be submitted with the application and payment. Each category of merchandise to be sold must be represented by photos. The jury may reject work that differs significantly from the entry photos, is unsuitable or in poor taste, or that does not comply with the above standards. The Jury will not consider applications without photos. All photos will be returned at the festival. Fine Art/Craft vendors must complete the enclosed form and return with their application.

Photos may be emailed to: office@chillicothemmo.com

The application may be completed and submitted online at:

www.chillicothemmo.com

Commercial items used to display items for sale may not be sold.
