President James Harris

James Harris is an Oakland native, a former teacher, and a small business owner. Mr. Harris was elected by his colleagues to be Vice President of the Board on January 6, 2014; President on January 5, 2015; re-elected President on January 4, 2016. Mr. Harris studied Literature at Georgia State University, and earned his Bachelor's degree in Communication from Santa Clara University (SCU).

After graduating from SCU he began teaching English at Lick-Wilmerding High School in San Francisco. James served on the Aim High Board of Trustees and was a founding board member at Great Oakland Public Schools, a local organization that connects and activates the community to advocate for quality public schools across Oakland.
