LEADERSHIP JACKSONVILLE ATTENDANCE POLICY

1. Leadership Jacksonville will do everything possible to abide by the tentative schedule presented to applicants. However, on occasion schedule changes may become necessary.
2. Any person missing two sessions of the Jacksonville Leadership Institute will not receive a certificate. No exceptions will be made and no excuses will be accepted, even if an absence is precipitated by a schedule change. A session may vary in length.
3. If, for attendance reasons, an enrollee does not graduate, he/she may “make-up” the sessions missed during the following year’s curriculum. Previous participants who have “made-up” classes will be eligible to receive a graduation certificate. “Made-up” classes will be participants own time and expense and must be completed during the next Leadership School.
4. Tuition is non-refundable after the first session of Institute.
5. An email from the Chamber will be sent to a student after one session is missed.

POLICIES
JACKSONVILLE LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

ARTICLE I - PURPOSE

The purpose of the Jacksonville Leadership Institute (JLI) is to identify and develop future leadership in Jacksonville, and to prepare these potential leaders for positions of responsible public decision-making.

ARTICLE II - JLI BOARD

- Section 1. The JLI Board shall be the policy-making body of the school.
- Section 2. The Board shall be composed of the Education Development Division Chair of the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce, the current Chairman of the JLI Alumni Association, the current Chairs of the JLI class, the current Chair of the Chamber of Commerce board, and the Chair-elect of the Chamber of Commerce board.
- Section 3. The Education Development Division Chair of the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce shall serve as the Chairman of the JLI Board. The JLI Board shall meet at the discretion of the JLI Board Chairman.
- Section 4. Any policy changes in JLI must be referred to and approved by the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce Board.
- Section 5. A majority of the JLI Board shall constitute a quorum.
- Section 6. Any vacancy occurring among the membership of the JLI Board shall be filled by appointment by the JLI Board Chairman.

ARTICLE III - PARTICIPANTS

- Section 1. There shall be no more than two participants from any one company/organization or subsidiary or affiliate thereof in any JLI classes.
- Section 2. All participants and their employers (when applicable) will be required to sign a commitment pledge regarding attendance regulations and financial obligations.
- Section 3. Participants will be determined by a selection process and upon completion of an enrollment form and completion of financial arrangements regarding the tuition.

- Section 4. Financial arrangements must be finalized at the time of application. All checks should be payable to the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce and are to be considered tuition. Tuition fees are not refundable.
- Section 5. The JLI shall be non-partisan, non-sectional, and non-sectarian, and shall take no part or lend its influence to issues, election or appointment of any candidate for federal, state, county, city, or otherwise designated public office.
- Section 6. The JLI is open to any person over the age of eighteen and does not discriminate in its admissions on the basis of race, sex, religion, or national origin.
