Salem, MASalem Historical Tour with Lunch*$75 USD

Take a trip back in time to historic Salem. In less than an hour you will arrive in a city with a rich maritime history as well as a dark, infamous past associated with witch-hunts and the subsequent trials of 1692. Sit back and take in the quintessential New England atmosphere during lunch at a local restaurant. Then, join your local guide who will lead you on a walking tour to introduce you to the tales of 17th-century Salem. Continue on to relive the days gone by at the House of Seven Gables, the inspiration for author Nathaniel Hawthorne's famous novel of the same name. Get a taste of the life of a sea captain centuries ago when strolling through the spectacular seaside home and gardens. Drive back to Boston this afternoon with newfound admiration for this captivating city. Duration: Approximately 4.5 hours. Please note a minimum of 12 passengers is required. Transportation is included.
