Fulton Windmill
10th Avenue & 1st Street; Fulton, IL
(815) 589-4033
www.cityoffulton.us
This authentic Dutch windmill was constructed on the flood control dike in the heart of Fulton. The windmill was engineered and pre-fabricated in the Netherlands and shipped to the United States in containers by ship, rail, and truck transportation. Dutch millwrights and masons traveled to the United States on three separate occasions and rebuilt the windmill in Fulton.

Heritage Canyon
515 North 4th Street; Fulton, IL
(815) 589-4545
www.cityoffulton.us
The mood of an earlier day settles upon visitors to Heritage Canyon, on the banks of the great Mississippi River. Reproductions and restored buildings from the 1800’s re-create the past. The buildings sit in an old limestone quarry, carefully converted to preserve the integrity of the natural surroundings. All buildings are authentically furnished and tours are self-guided.

3942 291st Street; Camanche, IA
(563) 259-1876

Located at Rock Creek Marina & Campground in Camanche, IA. This state-of-the-art eco-tourism center will educate and entertain tourists, as well as continue to provide an excellent place for schools, clubs and retreats to explore the great Mississippi heritage. The centerpiece of this center is a 9,000 gallon aquarium that measures 20 feet long, 6 feet high and 10 feet wide. The aquarium is stocked with Mississippi River fish species, along with a large wetlands display, highlighting reptiles, amphibians, waterfowl and other species that call the backwaters and sloughs of the Mississippi home. The Eco Center is also home to a large collection of replicas of Iowa state record fish species, including the largest large-mouth bass to the biggest flathead catfish and fish species in between. These replicas give visitors a vivid impression of just how large our aquatic friends can grow. It is the only place in Iowa that you can see such a vast collection!

Sawmill Museum
2231 Grant Street
(563) 242-0343
www.thesawmillmuseum.org

Lumber built Clinton, not just the buildings and barns, but it fathered the industry that brought the railroad, the immigrants, and the entrepreneurs. Listen to the legends and stories that made the lumberjack a national hero, then experience what life was really like in a lumber camp. Hear the buzz from the saw mill as logs are cut into the lumber and envision the workings of the Struve Mill where hundreds of pieces of wood became beautiful trims, doors and flooring. Catch a glimpse of a worker’s life or entertain with the millionaire’s family as you visit “Clinton, the Lumber Capital of the World” and other exhibits at the Sawmill Museum. Located in the Lyons District.

Explore Clinton’s Hidden Treasures and Local Favorites

Lyons Farmers Market
The Lyons Farmers Market provides the Clinton, Camanche, and Fulton area fresh, locally-grown fruits, vegetables, baked goods, meat, jams, honey, crafts and friendship. Hosted every Wednesday afternoon and Saturday morning from the end of May to the beginning of November at Lyons Four Square Park on Main Avenue. Come down and treat your family and yourself to healthy, local food.

Clinton LumberKings Baseball
Discover what the locals know – a night at the ball park in the summer is just about as good as it gets! LumberKings Baseball, home games hosted at Ashford University Field, along Clinton’s Riverfront.

Finally Fridays
Another one of our local favorites – this is a free, fun outdoor music series hosted at the Riverfront Bandshell in Clinton. Families and friends gather for the concert series that is hosted once a month from June through September. Area vendors have the food & beverages covered, so just bring a few bucks and your lawn chair and enjoy the spirit of summer with us!

Mussel Beach on Blue Heron Eco-Cruise
Wait, don’t you mean Muscle Beach?
No – this is Mussel Beach: reachable by private boat, or when you take part in the Blue Heron Eco-Cruise. Like many of the backwater treasures along the Mississippi, Mussel Beach is a muddy home to lots of little critters and is a great place to explore the river wildlife.

Paul’s Discount Store
Clinton’s first and Iowa’s largest locally-owned discount store. Paul’s Discount is a great place to start for your home improvement, hardware, fishing & hunting needs, and there are some surprises, too – like shoes & clothing, treats and toys, and even obscure sodas that you can’t find anywhere else.

The Painted Rooster
The Painted Rooster is a family owned boutique located in the heart of downtown Clinton, Iowa. The Painted Rooster is the place to dream big while shopping local – the selection of fashion, jewelry, gift items and children’s clothing is second to none. The merchandising is artistic, a great place to find a souvenir for someone special.

Smith Brother's General Store
From rubber chickens to cast iron skillets and pretty much everything in between – Smitty’s General Store is the place for a scavenger hunt of crazy unique things!

Krumpets Bakery Café
Homemade is the key word here. Everything you order has that special touch of a home cooked meal, and in the case of Krumpet’s, a lot of home-baked goodness too! Enjoy a walk around downtown Fulton after you’ve enjoyed brunch or dessert at Krumpet’s.

Homer’s Deli
A family owned business, Homer’s Deli originated in 1984 and was named after a local grocery store entrepreneur Homer Kopp. Homer’s Deli specializes in homemade soups and fresh salads, serving only quality meats and real Wisconsin cheese. They peel fresh potatoes and dice boiled eggs to make the best potato salad around. So whet your appetite and head to Homer’s.

Holly’s Hot Dogs
Holly’s Hot Dogs Stand is open on the Riverfront during the spring and summer months. When it is too cold, the whole operation moves indoors to Paul’s Discount Store. Holly’s serves all beef hot dogs, Polish sausage as well as jalapeno dogs, bratwursts, chips and drinks.

Sweetheart Bakery
If you grew up in Clinton, the sight of a Sweetheart cookie will send you down memory lane – and that’s just for starters! Sweetheart is a third generation family-owned bakery since 1950. They specialize in decorated cakes for special events, seasonal cookies, doughnuts and pastries, Danish pastries and coffee cakes. Everything is made from scratch. Don’t miss the world famous blarney stones. This is definitely one you don’t want to miss when you’re in town, and if you get hooked, no problem because Sweetheart ships some items all over the world. Closed Sundays and Mondays.

Local Specials – Chicken George
Chicken George. It’s a thing. You will notice this as you cruise through Clinton, especially if you are new here. Eating Chicken George is a rite of passage if you pass through Clinton. Add the Jan sauce and you are good to go! Look for this on menus all over Clinton.

392° Caffé
392° Caffé is a unique experience in downtown Clinton -- a coffee shop that serves up hand-crafted deliciousness and good times! Whether you are studying or schmoozing, do it with a mug of specialty coffee and the good vibes of the local coffee shop. 392° loves what they brew, and we bet you will, too!

Vinnie’s Lounge
Wine, craft beer and martini lounge. Did we have you at hello? Add to the list of attributes live music and great entertainment, and a knowledgeable staff. Vinnie’s Special Event Center next door can accommodate your special event or reunion – so check it out and stay for another round!

Candlelight Inn Restaurant
$2 margaritas on Fridays! Plus a million dollar view of the Mississippi!

Clinton County Historical Society and Museum
601 South 1st Street
(563) 242-1201
www.clintoncountyhistoricalsocietyofiowa.org
Here, the story of early settlers of this Mississippi River area and the booming lumber business is told. Permanent collection includes old photographs of the area, memorabilia, period furniture, authentic 1924 kitchen, and the “Resolute,” one of the only three manually-powered fire engines on display in the world.

Felix Adler Children's Discovery Center
332 8th Avenue South
(563) 243-3600
www.adlerdiscoverycenter.org
The Felix Adler Children’s Discovery Center was first started in 1993 as a tribute to the world famous clown and Clinton native, Felix Adler. Located in beautiful downtown Clinton, Iowa, our 17,000 square foot building houses more than 20 permanent and travelling interactive exhibits. From our KAPLA Block Corner to our giant Brio Train Engine, children and adults alike are guaranteed to have a great time! Our two special event rooms also make a great place to have your next party or event!

Fulton Windmill
10th Avenue & 1st Street; Fulton, IL
(815) 589-4033
This authentic Dutch windmill was constructed on the flood control dike in the heart of Fulton. The windmill was engineered and pre-fabricated in the Netherlands and shipped to the United States in containers by ship, rail, and truck transportation. Dutch millwrights and masons traveled to the United States on three separate occasions and rebuilt the windmill in Fulton.

George M. Curtis Mansion (Women’s Club)
420 5th Avenue South
(563) 242-8556
Constructed in 1883, the Mansion was the home of lumber baron, George M. Curtis. It served as a showcase for his business with each room featuring a different wood and decorated with the flower of the tree from which the wood was obtained. Feel the essence to what it was like to enjoy afternoon tea on the veranda of a Victorian mansion – home of a millionaire lumber baron.

Heritage Canyon
515 North 4th Street; Fulton, IL
(815) 589-4545
The mood of an earlier day settles upon visitors to Heritage Canyon, on the banks of the great Mississippi River. Reproductions and restored buildings from the 1800’s re-create the past. The buildings sit in an old limestone quarry, carefully converted to preserve the integrity of the natural surroundings. All buildings are authentically furnished and tours are self-guided.

Martin House Museum
707 10th Avenue; Fulton, IL
(815) 589-4545
The Fulton Historical Society is located in this Civil War era home donated to the City by Leonard and Maxine Martin. The Society wishes to preserve the heritage of the community and provide educational opportunities for the purpose of increasing and enriching public knowledge. Features include stained glass windows, photo and memorabilia collections and a research room.

MUSEUMS

Sawmill Museum
2231 Grant Street
(563) 242-0343
www.thesawmillmuseum.org
Lumber built Clinton, not just the buildings and barns, but it fathered the industry that brought the railroad, the immigrants, and the entrepreneurs. Listen to the legends and stories that made the lumberjack a national hero, then experience what life was really like in a lumber camp. Hear the buzz from the saw mill as logs are cut into the lumber and envision the workings of the Struve Mill where hundreds of pieces of wood became beautiful trims, doors and flooring. Catch a glimpse of a worker’s life or entertain with the millionaire’s family as you visit “Clinton, the Lumber Capital of the World” and other exhibits at the Sawmill Museum. Located in the Lyons District.

St. Irenaeus Cultural Center
2811 North 2nd Street
(563) 242-1201
www.clintoncountyhistoricalsocietyofiowa.org
On May 1st, 1864 Bishop Smyth, of Dubuque, laid the cornerstone for the present Gothic cathedral, modeled after the beautiful cathedral of St. Irenaeus in Lyons, France. In 2006, St. Irenaeus Catholic Church was decommissioned and would no longer be used. On June 29th, 2010, the Clinton County Historical Society received ownership of the building to renovate it into a cultural center. On September 3rd, 2010, the building was placed on the National Register of Historic Places.

The Catholic Historical Center at St. Boniface
2520 Pershing Boulevard
(563) 503-0349
Look for us on Facebook!
Listed on the National Register of Historic Places, the St. Boniface building, a beautiful example of early 20th Century Gothic architecture, served as a Roman Catholic parish for over 90 years. Steeped in the history of the north-end Lyons area of Clinton, the building now serves as the home of the Catholic Historical Center. The Center’s goal is to preserve the history of the Clinton area Catholic community, maintaining an extensive archive of local Catholic churches’ artifacts and records. The Center welcomes genealogy requests.

Park area includes: basketball, cross-country skiing, sledding, playground equipment, picnic tables & grills, restrooms and shelters. Picnic, hike or cross-country ski around this 200-acre park of spectacular bluffs along the river in Clinton. A 1937 Stone Tower provides a spectacular view of the Mississippi River and surrounding area. Children’s playgrounds are situated throughout the Park. The North end overlook provides a panoramic view of the widest part of the entire Mississippi River. The park is a facility of the City of Clinton. The Lodge is rustic in nature and was built in 1937. The Lodge is adorned by glass-screened fireplaces and provides a cozy ambience for any event. The vista span of the Lodge highlights the sparkling waters of the Mighty Mississippi River and overlooks Lock and Dam 13. The annual migration of eagles highlights a spectacular view from the glass windows that are a part of the charm of this facility. The heated and air conditioned Lodge is available year-round as a rental facility.

Great River Trail
Savanna, IL
www.traillink.com/trail/great-river-trail
The Great River Trail is a breathtaking journey along 60 miles of the Mississippi River. The route is a mixture of paved rail-trail, small-town sidewalks, dedicated bike lanes on the street and a stretch of road shoulder along the Great River Road. The Great River Trail begins in Savanna and travels south through many small river towns with traditions still steeped in the quintessential culture of the Mississippi River. There are many opportunities for browsing antiques, enjoying sumptuous catfish dinners and viewing the boats and barges. If you stop for a spell, the friendly locals will chat to you about the river and how it has—and hasn’t—changed.

Lock & Dam 13 (Lake Clinton)
4999 Lock Road; Fulton, IL
(815) 589-3313
www.mvr.usace.army.mil
Viewing deck open year round. River closed to navigation annually from mid-December – first of March. Thousands of visitors come to view the barges and boats locking through on the widest pool in the Upper Mississippi River Basin. This lock & dam, managed by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, is an excellent location to view bald eagles during the winter months (Nov. – Mar.). Public lock & dam tours are held Sundays at 1 pm. between Memorial Day and Labor Day Weekends. Special group tours may be arranged by contacting the park rangers. The Corps of Engineers also offers several recreation areas within a short drive of Clinton. These areas offer diverse opportunities for recreational activities including: boating, fishing and hunting, picnicking, sightseeing, hiking and camping.

(563) 242-9088
www.sencinfo.com/prairie_pastures_dog_park
You and your canine buddy can enjoy over 8 acres of off-leash adventures at our nationally recognized Prairie Pastures Dog Park! We have something for every dog- small dogs, older dogs and adventuresome dogs! Prairie Pastures is a unique, one-of-a-kind dog park experience. It is located on the site of an old zoo, which offers unusual structures and varied terrain, including a swimming pond. Very spacious and the terrain, structures and vegetation amplify that spaciousness by providing visual and sound barriers, which give the dogs the choice of exploring alone or playing with others. There are also many different gated sections giving plenty of separate areas to meet everyone’s individual needs. Entry in Eagle Point Park.
