

Stacie Riffert, Empowered Leadership, Owner & President

Stacie Riffert is a certified business coach, speaker and trainer.

Prior to starting her coaching practice, Stacie was a successful executive in the food and beverage industry. She led large operational teams and managed national customer accounts over a two decade career at PepsiCo. During her time there, she received the prestigious PepsiCo President's Ring of Honor award and was recognized as a Top Woman in Grocery by Progressive Grocer Magazine.

Stacie left that world to focus on her passion: building businesses and developing people. By applying proven best practices, she has enabled her clients to achieve double digit growth while reducing the stresses of the business ownership.

Stacie is a certified FocalPoint business coach and one of the only licensed facilitators of the Navigational Conversations coaching program in the state of Ohio.

Stacie holds an MBA from Boston University, is a mom to two active and crazy little girls and has run multiple half marathons. She is active in the community as a coach with Girls on the Run and a board member for her local Chamber of Commerce.
