

What is TR AFC

The Travis Regional Armed Forces Committee is the local community organization which supports the men, women and missions of Travis Air Force Base. It's membership is comprised of local businesses and civic leaders, including elected officials throughout Solano County, the state and federal governments.

The organization meets monthly. Here, the group receives updates on Travis AFB activities from base leaders. Throughout the year, TR AFC hosts events honoring the men and women of Travis AFB.

Periodically the organization's members visit congressional leaders in the nation's capitol to seek support for base construction projects, projects that benefit military members at Travis, equipment improvements and missions.

TR AFC also leads efforts to achieve necessary support from local governments, agencies, and businesses on matters crucial to the base and its members and operations.

In short, TR AFC is the community's eyes, ears, and voice for the people of Travis AFB.

Membership is $135.00 per individual and is available to Chamber of Commerce members in good standing with any Solano County Chamber of Commerce.
