2020 Chisholm Trail Roundup Queen's Contest

Hints, Tips and Suggestions

NEVER sell door-to-door while you are alone! Be careful when you are in an unfamiliar place. Don't go somewhere you think is unsafe. THINK SAFETY FIRST!

Don't take all of your Wristbands and/or money to school. Make a list of who wants Wristbands and deliver them the next day. Never leave your Wristbands or money in your locker at school. Remember that you are responsible if they are lost or stolen.

HINT: Learn what a Wristband is worth! Memorize what it saves in money for the buyer. Impress people that you know exactly what you are selling.

Turn your money in often! This will help keep the bookkeeping "headache" to a minimum. Please turn in checks you receive for ticket voucher sales within 3 days so we can get them through the bank.

HINT: Most people are paid on the 1st and 15th of the month. That is a good time to plan your selling strategy!

If you contact someone to buy Wristbands, make sure that you follow up to make the sale. Each year we receive comments from people who get calls from candidates, saying they will come by to sell those Wristbands, but never show up.

HINT: If you have an appointment to meet someone to sell those Wristbands, and they are not there, have some ready-made notes that say, "I came by and sorry I missed you!" Be sure to include your name and phone number.

If someone comes up to you and says, "Suzy Jones has sold the most Wristbands so far and is definitely going to win!" Look them straight in the eye and just SMILE! NO ONE WILL KNOW WHO IS AHEAD AT ANY TIME DURING THE CONTEST.

HINT: If another candidate asks you how you are doing on wristband sales, say "GREAT!" Remember this is to be a fun competition!

If someone wants to help you sell Wristbands, that's okay. Just remember YOU are responsible if they lose your Wristbands or money.

HINT: If you give Wristbands to a friend to help sell, keep a written ledger of who you give them to, how many and when. Make sure they know that you are responsible for all the Wristbands and money. A friend would not want you to lose because of them. The ledger will also help you keep track of who has your Wristbands.

Lastly, if you have any questions, don't hesitate to call and ask. We are looking forward to working with you. Good luck to all candidates!
