8 a.m. Begin your morning on Danville’s charming Main Street. Stop at Burke’s Bakery and Delicatessen or The Hub Coffee House and Cafe for breakfast.

9 a.m. Tour Constitution Square Historic Site. Stop by the visitor’s center at Grayson’s Tavern for brochures, suggestions and free maps.

10 a.m. Cross the street and tour the historic McDowell House Museum, Apothecary and Gardens.

11 a.m. Take a stroll down Main Street and shop in one of our many boutiques and shops. Be sure to check out Karamel Kreations and the Maple Tree Gallery.

12 p.m. Lunch Time! If you are in the mood for a soup and sandwich, check out Melton’s Great American Deli; or try Taqueria Los Amigos for authentic Mexican fare.

1 p.m. Head west to the Perryville Battlefield State Historic Site. Stop by the Civil War museum, which tells the story of the Battle of Perryville in graphics and photos.

3:30 p.m. Next, head to Merchants Row, located on Buell Street in downtown Perryville. Merchants Row is the oldest operating commercial district in the United States. Take a walking tour of the historical homes and buildings along the Chaplin River and check out the antique stores. Be sure to stop by the museum, located in the Perryville Community Center, to see more Civil War-era artifacts.

6 p.m. Head back to Danville for a delicious dinner at one of our popular local establishments: Cue, Brothers Bar-B-Que, or Bluegrass Pizza and Pub.

8:30 p.m. Finish your evening by grabbing a drink at The Beer Engine or Jane Barleycorn’s Market & Bar.
