

Main Street Perryville

Executive Director's Monthly Report
February 4, 2016

Economic Restructuring

- ✓ S & A Furniture has expanded into another portion of the old Perryville Furniture building.

Design

- ✓ On the evening of February 2nd, an unidentified vehicle going north on Buell Street jumped the curb in front of United Country Realty and traveled the length of Merchants Row destroying the gutter extensions on four buildings (Burton's Store, Greens Drug Store, Parks Store and Opera House). We reported the damage to police chief Parker Hatter. He is investigating. D&M Home Improvement has been contacted to replace the gutter.

Events

- ✓ Main Street Perryville has sold .71 acres of the Bond property to Buddy Lutes. The property joins his property on US 150 that was formerly the Masonic Lodge. Money from the sale has gone into our preservation account.
- ✓ We are currently working on the 2016 event calendar.

Organization

- ✓ Attend 3 C's meeting on Monday mornings.
- ✓ Will attend EDP Board Meeting (next meeting scheduled for February 17th)
- ✓ We will be mailing out membership letters this month.
- ✓ Kitty Dougoud of the Kentucky Heritage Council will conduct board member training on Sunday, February 28th.
- ✓ The Danville Boyle County Economic Development Partnership will schedule the next Community Forum in the near future.
