Draw attention to your business by promoting your company's momentous occasions with a ribbon cutting. Members host ribbon cuttings for a variety of occasions such as anniversaries, new locations, and enhanced services.

Credibility as a Chamber member and Chamber member decal

A national survey of 2,000 adults reveals that being active in a local Chamber of Commerce is an effective business strategy, because two-thirds of consumers believe that such companies use good business practices, are reputable, care about their customers, and are involved in the community. The study, conducted by The Schapiro Group (an Atlanta based strategic consulting firm) found consumer perceptions of Chamber members to be positive in many ways:

- When consumers know that a small business is a member, they are 49% more likely to think of it favorably, and 80% more likely to purchase goods or services from the company in the future.
- If a company shows that it is highly involved in its local Chamber, consumers are 10% more likely to think that its products are better in comparison to competition.
- When consumers know that a national restaurant franchise is a member of their local Chamber, they are 68% more likely to eat at the franchise in the next few months.
