Southport CVS Mural

Erin Schwartz recapped the goals of the Southport CVS mural, including increasing foot traffic along Southport north and south of Addison and creating a sense of community that would help people feel more connected to the neighborhood. She presented artist statements and concepts from each of the four pre-selected artists, including Tracee Badway, Nate Otto, Ouizi, and Tony Passero. Commissioners shared positive feedback about all of the concepts, but thought that Ouizi's "Urbs in Horto" and Tony Passero's "Fox" more clearly relate to the project's stated goals. Matt Lederer motioned for the Commissioners present at the meeting to take a vote between Ouizi's "Urbs in Horto" and Tony Passero's "Fox", seconded by Amy Novotny; motion carries with Commissioners voting as follows:

- "Urbs in Horto" by Ouizi: 5 votes in favor
- "Fox" by Tony Passero: 3 votes in favor

With "Urbs in Horto" by Ouizi receiving the most votes, Commissioners recommended reserving "Fox" by Tony Passero as the alternate concept in case Ouizi's concept isn't accepted by the property. They also suggested asking Ouizi to fill in the background of her artwork and to potentially relocate the text elsewhere on the wall so it isn't obscured beneath the windows of the building.

Adjourn

Luis Monje motioned to adjourn the meeting, seconded by Amy Novotny; meeting adjourned at 9:00 AM.
