

Catherine M. Adduci

Catherine Adduci has an extensive resume blending elected public service, civic engagement, and a distinguished career at Unisys Corporation, a fortune 500 company.

A long-time resident of the Village of River Forest, Ms. Adduci currently in her second term as the Village President. She served as trustee from 2009 to 2013 and clerk from 2007 to 2009. She is on the Board of Directors of the Illinois Municipal League and serves on the executive committee. Ms. Adduci also serves on the executive and legislative committee of the West Central Municipal Conference (WCMC) and previously served as its President from 2017 to 2018. In 2014, she was the recipient of the Mayor of the Year award from the Illinois Crime Commission for her leadership and significant contributions in making a difference in the Village of River Forest.

Ms. Adduci is a retired vice-president and senior executive for Unisys Corporation, an international technology firm, where she worked for 32 years. Her senior executive expertise includes marketing and sales management, general management and operations, finance and human professional development. She traveled throughout the world wherever Unisys did business. She is now President and founder of CMA Associates, Inc., a company helping non-profit organizations formulate their information technology strategies.

Catherine also serves on the boards of professional, community, and civic groups, most notably the Belmont Bank and Trust Company, Thrive Counseling Center, and the Erikson Institute, a graduate school focusing on early childhood development. A graduate of Northern Illinois University, Catherine is on the advisory board of that institution's College of Business, and from 2001 to 2004 served on the University's Board of Trustees. She holds an MBA in Finance from Loyola University of Chicago.

Ms. Adduci has contributed to many local charitable organizations and she received the Outstanding Citizens Award from Amity for her community engagement. Her daughter, Jenna Ronan, is a recent graduate of Loyola University of Chicago.