

Community Resource Directory

The following information was compiled by the Workforce Development Committee of the Danville-Boyle County Economic Development Partnership (EDP) to assist individuals, organizations, and businesses in the community to locate and access resources. It is not an all-inclusive list, but does include agencies that can direct individuals to other resources.

This resource directory would not have been possible without the significant assistance of the Families First Family Resources Center of the Danville Independent Schools (Anna Houston, Director) and the agencies of the United Human Services organization.

The Directory has four sections: (1) Resources for Job Seekers, (2) Resources for Employers, (3) Substance Abuse Treatment and Prevention Resources, and (4) a list of Area Childcare Centers.

NOTE: Care was taken to ensure that the descriptions and contact information for each listed entity are accurate as of March 1, 2019. The directory will be updated periodically, but it is possible that some information listed here may become incorrect between updates.
