

Lynn Clark, Maple Bay Manor

Lynn has more than 19 years experience in running a consulting based business which has encompassed communications, marketing and supply chain management for large and medium sized corporations. She also has expertise in residential development, construction and design. Lynn recently moved to the Cowichan Valley and has branched into the hospitality and tourism industry - renovating and operating Maple Bay Manor. She believes there are significant opportunities in the Valley for entrepreneurs and feels it is important to encourage and support new and existing businesses.
