

Leah Hudson, MPAcc | Grant Thornton LLP

Leah has been working at Grant Thornton for two years, gaining experience with small and medium businesses, working to support their continued success by assisting with their accounting and taxation needs. Leah has resided in the Cowichan Valley her entire life and is passionate about supporting the community that has fostered her growth over the years. In both her work and personal life, Leah has witnessed the impact thriving business can have on the community and, therefore, recognizes the importance of business in the Cowichan Valley.
