SUMMIT 2018

SUMMIT SPEAKERS: Wealth of Knowledge, Expertise & Personal Experience

Christy Buck, Executive Director of the Mental Health Foundation of West Michigan and Director of the “be nice.” initiative. “be nice.” is an action plan. It is a life-saving tool that helps individuals understand that they can have an effect on how people think, act and feel. It is the ultimate transformative experience that we all have the ability to save a life by simply being nice.

Tom Daldin, Emmy award winning producer, actor and writer, host of PBS’ “Under the Radar”, has created programs that have aired across Michigan and the U.S. on PBS. He has also won a number of commercial television “best actor” awards. His claim to fame is running around exploring cool people, places and things in Michigan. Who better to share what makes a community stand out as a great place to visit, play, and live?

Jeff Mason, As CEO of Michigan Economic Development Corporation, an agency dedicated to job creation, Jeff Mason is charged with implementing and executing MEDC’s core mission of business development and attraction, community development, providing access to capital and improving Michigan’s image and brand.

Brooks Kindel, Small business strategist, coach and Certified Small Business Consultant. The “silver tsunami” of retiring Boomer business owners is in full force, while, at the same time, Gen X and the Millennials are seeking opportunities to enter the entrepreneurial space. Whether you’re seeking to buy or sell a business, Brooks will prepare you to successfully navigate the process.
